Heavens cards, they ain't been easy I've been dealt the lowest hand And it gets tough before it gets any better Like I'm stuck watching falling sand And though I feel it in my bones Feel it underneath my skin My love is raising And He says You will call and I will answer I'll hold you up through the night Oh you my child will never be Be alone You will make it out alright And I will guide you through this life The night will fall and the stars will rise up Bringing light when I can't stand And on this day, this very hour Yeah-eh-yea I embrace your glorious plan And though I feel it in my bones I feel it underneath my skin My Lord is with me And he says You will call and I will answer I'll hold you up through the night Yeah-hey-hey Because you my child Will never be alone You will make it out alright And I will guide you through this life Oh I will I will guide you through this life But until now This life I've had was filled with doubt and pain But you my love have taken that and run to me and said You will call and I will answer I'll hold you up through the night Yeah-hey-eh Because you my child Will never be alone You will make it out alright Yeah And I will guide you through this life Ohh-oo I will guide you through this life Song by David Leonard (Christian) Report Story I will be the answer at the end of the line I will be there for you while you take the time In the burning of uncertainty, I will be your solid ground I will hold the balance if you can't look down If it takes my whole life, I won't break, I won't bend It'll all be worth it, worth it in the end 'Cause I can only tell you what I know That I need you in my life When the stars have all gone out You'll still be burning so bright Cast me gently into morning For the night has been unkind Take me to a, a place so holy That I can wash this from my mind The memory of choosing not to fight If it takes my whole life, I won't break, I won't bend It'll all be worth it, worth it in the end 'Cause I can only tell you what I know That I need you in my life When the stars have all burned out You'll still be burning so bright Cast me gently into morning For the night has been unkind Lyrics submitted by WinterOnyx Answer Lyrics as written by Sarah Ann McLachlan Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Lyrics powered by LyricFind Add your thoughts Log in now to tell us what you think this song means.
